Course information
The Praxis I Pre-Professional Skills Tests (PPST) measures basic reading, writing and mathematics skills for all candidates seeking entry into a teacher education program. Connecticut state law requires all individuals seeking formal admission to a teacher education program or certification in Connecticut to take and pass the Praxis I tests in Reading, Writing and Mathematics.

This 6-session course will provide specific test taking strategies for reading comprehension, mathematics, sentence correction, and essay writing. Each session is 2 hours in length.

Sample Syllabus
Typically, students will receive approximately 2.5 hours of reading comprehension, 5 hours of mathematics, 2.5 hours of sentence correction, and 2 hours of essay writing instruction and practice. Detailed information about the test application process will also be provided.

Subject to change at instructor's discretion.

CRN 2559 EDUC I 5006
Dates: Tuesday, March 24 April 28
Times: 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM - N003
Cost: $250
Instructor: Lecia Allman

Course Sessions
Session 1 Reading Comprehension
Session 2 Math / Reading Comprehension
Session 3 Sentence Correction
Session 4 Math / Sentence Correction
Session 5 Essay Writing
Session 6 Math

About the instructor
Lecia Allman has 15 years' experience and has trained teachers on Orton-Gillingham based instructional reading methods for challenged, dyslexic, and autistic students. She has also taught critical and analytical thinking mastery, time management, and essay writing as well as tutored LSAT, GMAT, GRE, MCAT, SAT, ACT, PRAXIS exams, English, Math, and Reading.

For more information contact:
Michelle R. Fraser
Coordinator, Continuing Education
Phone: 203-285-2082
mfraser@gatewayct.edu

GatewayCT.edu/Great-Center