

Student Accessibility Services- Documentation Guidelines

Deafness or Hearing Disorders

The following guidelines are provided for evaluators, physicians, medical professionals, students, and family members to guide the process of submitting documentation to the Student Accessibility Services office (SAS) at Gateway Community College. Please provide the information on typed letterhead.

Documentation Requirement Checklist:

In order for the Student Accessibility Services office to determine eligibility for academic adjustments for a student, documentation must include the following information. These requirements have been provided in a clear format to follow when preparing documentation for review.

Audiological evaluation and/or Audiogram:

- Statement of diagnosis(es), date of last audiological exam
- Date and/or age of onset of hearing disorder or deafness
- Include an interpretation of the audiogram and how the diagnostic data may impact an individual in an educational environment
- Discussion of the nature, frequency, and severity of the hearing disorder

Audiological Technologies:

- Description of any technologies currently used by the individual (i.e., hearing aids, assistive listening devices, cochlear implants, sign-language interpreters, real-time captioning, etc)
- Indicate what type of sign-language used if applicable

Recommendations

- Specific recommendations regarding academic adjustments, auxiliary aids and/or services including a rationale for each accommodation based on the individual's identified functional limitations

Evaluator Qualifications

- Name and title, license # (if applicable), address, phone number, fax number, email address, and signature on typed letterhead

*Appropriate professionals include school and/or clinical psychologists, educational therapists, special education teachers, licensed psychiatrists, neurologists, physicians (for medical conditions), and other rehabilitation professionals. Certified/appropriate professionals cannot be family members.

The completed documentation may be given directly to the student to submit or it can be forwarded to the following address:
